“Zone” means an area including Clubs, with boundaries as approved by the Bowls NSW Board from time to time and defined in the Bowls NSW regulations, for which the Association is responsible. A reference to “Zone” also includes the Executive Committee or other body appointed to administer the Zone.

B. Interpretation

In this Constitution:

- (B.1) a reference to a function includes a reference to a power, authority and duty;
- (B.2) a reference to the exercise of a function includes, where the function is a power, authority or duty, a reference to the exercise of the power or authority of the performance of the duty;
- (B.3) words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa;
- (B.4) words importing any gender include the other genders. That is, this document is to be interpreted as being gender neutral;
- (B.5) references to persons include corporations and bodies politic;
- (B.6) references to a person include the legal personal representatives, successors and permitted assigns of that person;
- (B.7) a reference to a statute, ordinance, code or other law includes regulations and other statutory instruments under it and consolidations, amendments, re-enactments or replacements of any of them (whether of the same or any legislative authority having jurisdiction);
- (B.8) a reference to "writing" shall unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as including references to printing, lithography, photography and other modes of representing or reproducing words in a visible form, including messages sent by electronic mail; and
- (B.9) headings and the table of contents are inserted for convenience only and do not affect the interpretation of this Constitution.

C. Severance

If any provision of this Constitution or any phrase contained in it is invalid or unenforceable, the phrase or provision is to be read down if possible, so as to be valid and enforceable, and otherwise shall be severed to the extent of the invalidity or unenforceability, without affecting the remaining provisions of this Constitution.

D. The Act

Except where the contrary intention appears, in this Constitution, an expression that deals with a matter under the Act has the same meaning as that provision of the Act. Model rules under the Act are expressly displaced by this Constitution.

E. Interpretation to be Binding

- (E.1) A decision of the Executive Committee on the construction or interpretation of this Constitution, or on any Regulations made pursuant to this Constitution or on any matter arising thereof, will be conclusive and binding on all members of the Association, subject to such construction or interpretation being varied or revised by a court of competent jurisdiction.

F. Interpretation from previous Constitution

This Constitution must be interpreted in such a way that:

- (F.1) any register maintained by the Association immediately before this Constitution is adopted is taken to be a register maintained under this Constitution;
- (F.2) any seal adopted by the Association immediately before this Constitution is adopted is taken to be a seal which the Association has under a relevant authority given by this Association; and
- (F.3) unless a contrary intention appears in this Constitution, all persons, agreements and circumstances appointed, approved or created by or under the Constitution of the Association in force before this Constitution is adopted, continue to have the same status, operation and effect after this Constitution is adopted.

4. OBJECTS OF THE ASSOCIATION

The Objects of the Association are to:

- (A.1) participate as an affiliate of the Bowls NSW and arrange and conduct, in conjunction with the Bowls NSW, the affairs of the Bowls NSW within the Zone boundaries in which it is established.
- (A.2) at all times promote and act on behalf of, and in the interests of its Members and Bowls in the Zone;
- (A.3) conduct, encourage, promote, advance and administer Bowls throughout the Zone;
- (A.4) ensure the maintenance and enhancement of the Association, the Bowls NSW, the Members and Bowls along with its standards, quality and reputation for the benefit of the Members and Bowls;
- (A.5) at all times promote mutual trust and confidence between the Association and the Members in pursuit of these Objects;
- (A.6) use and protect the Intellectual Property as appropriate;
- (A.7) apply the property and capacity of the Association towards the fulfilment and achievement of these Objects;
- (A.8) strive for government, commercial and public recognition of the Association as the controlling body for Bowls in the Zone;
- (A.9) promulgate and secure uniformity in such rules and standards as may be necessary for the management of Bowls, Bowls competitions and related activities including, but not limited to the Laws of the Sport and coaching standards;
- (A.10) advance the operations and activities of the Association throughout the Zone;
- (A.11) further develop Bowls into an organised institution and with these Objects in view, to foster, regulate, organise and manage examinations, competitions, displays and other activities;
- (A.12) review and/or determine any matters relating to Bowls which may arise, or be referred to it, by any Member;

- (A.13) act as arbiter (as required) on all matters pertaining to the conduct of Bowls in the Zone, including disciplinary matters;
- (A.14) pursue such commercial arrangements, including sponsorship and marketing opportunities as are appropriate to further the interests of Bowls in the Zone;
- (A.15) raise funds by sponsorship, grant, donation or other method approved by the Executive Committee from time to time, in addition to Annual Membership Fees for the operation of the Association;
- (A.16) adopt and implement policies as required or as appropriate to achieve these Objects, including any policies endorsed by the Bowls NSW and such other matters as may arise as issues to be addressed in Bowls;
- (A.17) represent the interests of its Members and of Bowls generally in any appropriate forum;
- (A.18) have regard to the public interest in its operations;
- (A.19) do all that is reasonably necessary to enable these Objects to be achieved and enable Members to receive the benefits which these Objects are intended to achieve;
- (A.20) promote the health and safety of Members and all other participants in Bowls in the Zone;
- (A.21) seek and obtain if necessary improved facilities for the enjoyment of Bowls in the Zone;
- (A.22) undertake and or do all such things or activities which are necessary, incidental or conducive to the advancement of these Objects.

5. MEMBERS

A. Categories of Members

The Members of the Association shall be divided into the following categories:

 - (C.1.b) the Vice President
 - (C.1.c) the Finance Director,
 - (C.1.d) the Secretary,
 - (C.1.e) the State Councillor.
- (C.2) Directors on the Executive Committee shall be elected as Office Bearers or Ordinary Directors in accordance with rule 11.I
- (C.3) Subject to rule 11.B, Office Bearers shall perform such roles and duties as outlined in the Regulations.
- (C.4) Subject to rule 11.F and rule 11.I Term of Directors a Director may be re-elected as an Office-Bearer or Ordinary Director of the Association.

D. Directors

- (D.1) Subject to this Constitution, Directors may be required to meet any qualifications set out in the Regulations from time to time.
- (D.2) A Director of the Association must not simultaneously hold office on the Bowls NSW Board, and upon being elected or appointed, a Director must immediately resign from any positions of office held on the Bowls NSW Board, or otherwise shall be ineligible to hold office with the Association as a Director.
- (D.3) An employee of the Association or the Bowls NSW, if any, shall not be eligible to be elected or appointed as a Director of the Association.

E. Term of Directors

- (E.1) Subject to rule 12 each Director, shall hold office until the second Annual General Meeting following the declaration of their election at an Annual General Meeting, but is eligible for re-election subject to rule 11 E 2 Terms of Directors.
- (E.2) No Director may serve for more than five (5) consecutive terms of two years. However, that Director shall be eligible to return to the Executive Committee following an absence of not less than twelve (12) months.

F. Secretary

- (a) A person appointed or elected as Secretary of the Association must, as soon as practicable after being elected, provide all relevant contact details to the Association including current residential address.
- (b) It is the duty of the Secretary to ensure that adequate and accurate minutes are kept of;

- (F.1.a) all appointments of Office-Bearers and Ordinary Directors of the Executive Committee, and
- (F.1.b) the names of Directors present at an Executive Committee meeting or a General Meeting, and
- (F.1.c) all proceedings at Executive Committee meetings and General Meetings.
- (c) Minutes of proceedings at a meeting must be signed by the chairperson of the meeting or by the chairperson of the next succeeding meeting.

G. Finance Director

- (a) It is the duty of the Finance Director of the association to ensure:
 - (i) that all money due to the association is collected and received and that all payments authorised by the association are made, and
 - (ii) that correct books and accounts are kept showing the financial affairs of the association, including full details of all receipts and expenditure connected with the activities of the association.

H. Appointed Directors

- (H.1) The Executive Committee may appoint up to Two (2) appointed Directors, who may be appointed by the elected Directors under rule 11.H1
- (H.2) An appointed Director may have specific skills or knowledge in areas such as commerce, finance, marketing, law, government or business generally, which complement the Executive Committee composition, but need not have experience in or previous exposure to Bowls.
- (H.3) An appointed Director may be appointed by the elected Directors in accordance with this Constitution for a term of no longer than one (1) year which shall commence six (6) weeks after the Annual General Meeting and cease no later than six (6) weeks after the conclusion of the relevant Annual General Meeting following their appointment.
- (H.4) Subject to rule 11.H 3, an appointed Director may be reappointed by the Executive Committee.

I. Election of Executive Committee

- (I.1) The Executive Committee shall call for nominations at an appropriate time as outlined in the Regulations. All Members eligible to vote shall be notified of the call for nominations as determined by the Executive Committee.
- (I.2) Nominations of candidates for election as an Office Bearer or Ordinary Director shall:
 - (I.2.a) be made in writing on the form provided by the Association from time to time (if any), outline the Board position for which they wish to nominate, be signed by two (2) Bowling Members and accompanied by the written consent of the nominee to accept the nomination.

(1.2.b) confirm that the nominee provides consent to become an Individual Member of the Bowls NSW and also that they meet any qualifications set out in the Regulations from time to time under rule 11 D 1. and

(1.2.c) Be delivered to the Secretary or such person as nominated by the Executive Committee by the date specified on the call for nominations.

(1.3) If:

(1.3.a) the number of nominations received for the Executive Committee is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled; or

(1.3.b) there are insufficient nominations received to fill the respective vacancies on the Executive Committee;

then those nominated shall be declared elected only if approved by the majority of Members entitled to vote at the Annual General Meeting. Any vacancies shall be treated as casual vacancies under rule 12 A

(1.4) If the number of nominations exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, a ballot shall be conducted under rule 21 to determine the Office Bearers and Ordinary Directors of the Executive Committee.

(1.5) Subject to eligibility under the Act, the Executive Committee shall appoint one (1) person to act as the returning officer for the election of Directors.

(1.6) No person, other than the returning officer authorised by the Executive Committee, and eligible scrutineers, if any shall be entitled to see any voting paper and neither the returning officer or any scrutineer shall disclose to any other person the way in which any Member has voted.

(1.7) The decision of the returning officer on any matter relating to the elections is final, and there shall be no right of appeal from any such decision.

(1.8) The Executive Committee shall have the power to make Regulations regulating all matters in conjunction with the election of the Executive Committee that are not inconsistent with this rule 11.I.

12. VACANCIES ON THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

A. Casual Vacancy

(A.1) In the event of a casual vacancy on the Executive Committee, either in the position of an Office Bearer or an Ordinary Director, the Executive Committee may appoint any eligible Individual Member of the Bowls NSW to the vacant office;

(A.2) Any person appointed may continue in office up to the end of the term of the Director who has been replaced.

B. Circumstances where a casual vacancy arises

In addition to the circumstances in which the office of a Director becomes vacant by virtue of the Act, the office of a Director shall automatically be vacated if the Director:

- (B.1) dies;
- (B.2) is an elected Director and ceases to be a Member of the Association by way of resignation, suspension or expulsion;
- (B.3) becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with their creditors generally;
- (B.4) becomes of unsound mind or a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in anyway under the law relating to mental health;
- (B.5) resigns from office in writing to the Association;
- (B.6) is absent without the consent of the Executive Committee from three (3) consecutive meetings of the Executive Committee;
- (B.7) holds any office of employment with the Association;
- (B.8) is directly or indirectly interested in any contract or proposed contract with the Association and fails to declare the nature of such interest;
- (B.9) is removed from office; or
- (B.10) would otherwise be prohibited from being a Director of a corporation under the Corporations Act

C. Removal of Directors

- (C.1) The Members in General Meeting may by ordinary resolution:
 - (C.1.a) remove from office any Director, Directors or the whole of the Executive Committee before the expiration of their period of office; and
 - (C.1.b) appoint another person or persons in their stead provided any person so appointed is eligible to be a Director in accordance with this Constitution.
- (C.2) Any person appointed pursuant to rule 12 C 1b shall hold office for the remainder of the term of office of the Director being replace.
- (C.3) If a Director, to whom a proposed resolution referred to in rule 12 A 1 relates, makes representations in writing to the Secretary or President (not exceeding a reasonable length) and requests that the representations be notified to those Members of the Association eligible to vote, the Secretary or the President may send a copy of the representations to each Member of the Association eligible to vote or, if the representations are not so sent, the Member is entitled to require that the representations be read out at the meeting at which the resolution is considered.

D. Executive Committee May Act

In the event of a casual vacancy or vacancies in the position of any Office-Bearer or Ordinary Director, the remaining Directors may act but, if the number of remaining Directors is not sufficient to constitute a quorum at a meeting of the Executive Committee, they may act only for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to a number sufficient to constitute such a quorum under rule 13 E or for summoning a General Meeting of the Association.

13. MEETINGS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

A. Executive Committee to Meet

The Executive Committee shall meet as often as is deemed necessary for the dispatch of business (and shall be at least as often as is required under the Act) and subject to this Constitution may adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings as it thinks fit. The Secretary, at the direction of the President, or any three (3) Directors may at any time convene a meeting of the Executive Committee within a reasonable time.

B. Minute Book

- (B.1) A record of all Directors present at each Executive Committee meeting and of all Resolutions and proceedings of the Executive Committee at such meeting shall be entered in a Minute Book kept for that purpose.

C. Decisions of Executive Committee

Subject to this Constitution, questions arising at any meeting of the Executive Committee shall be decided by a majority of votes and a determination of a majority of Directors shall for all purposes be deemed a determination of the Executive Committee. All Directors shall have one vote on any question. The chairperson shall have a deliberative vote only, and no casting vote. Where voting is equal the motion will be lost.

D. Resolutions not in Meeting

- (D.1) A resolution in writing, signed or assented to by email, facsimile or other form of visible or other electronic communication by all the Directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of Directors duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more of the Directors.
- (D.2) Without limiting the power of the Executive Committee to regulate its meetings as it thinks fit, a meeting of the Executive Committee may be held where one or more of the Directors is not physically present at the meeting, provided that:
- (D.2.a) all Directors consent to the use of the technology used to call and hold the meeting. A Director may only withdraw their consent within a reasonable period before the meeting;
- (D.2.b) all persons participating in the meeting are able to communicate with each other effectively simultaneously and instantaneously whether by means of telephone or other form of communication technology;

- (D.2.c) notice of the meeting is given to all the Directors entitled to notice in accordance with the usual procedures agreed upon or laid down from time to time by the Executive Committee or this Constitution and such notice specifies that Directors are not required to be present in person;
- (D.2.d) if a failure in communications prevents rule 13 D 2b from being satisfied by that number of Directors which constitutes a quorum, and none of such Directors are present at the place where the meeting is deemed by virtue of the further provisions of this rule to be held then the meeting shall be suspended until rule 13 D 2b is satisfied again. If such condition is not satisfied within fifteen minutes from the interruption the meeting shall be deemed to have terminated or adjourned; and
- (D.2.e) any meeting held where one or more of the Directors is not physically present shall be deemed to be held at the place specified in the notice of meeting provided a Director is there present at that place and if no Director is there present at that place the meeting shall be deemed to be held at the place where the chairperson of the meeting is located.

E. Quorum

At meetings of the Executive Committee the number of Directors whose presence is required to constitute a quorum is five (5) Directors, or in the case of a position being on the Executive Committee becoming vacant a quorum shall be constituted by at least more than 50% of the current elected Directors.

F. Notice of Executive Committee Meetings

Unless all Directors agree to hold a meeting at shorter notice (which agreement shall be sufficiently evidenced by their apology or presence) not less than seven (7) days written notice of the meeting of the Executive Committee shall be given to each Director. Subject to a meeting being held on shorter notice, the agenda shall be forwarded to each Director not less than two (2) days prior to such meeting.

G. Chairperson

At meetings of the Executive Committee:

- (G.1) the President shall chair the meeting;
- (G.2) if the President is absent or unwilling or unable to act, the Vice President shall chair the meeting;
- (G.3) if the Vice President is absent or unwilling or unable to act the Executive Committee shall appoint one of its members to chair the meeting.

H. Conflict of Interest

(H.1) A Director shall declare their interest in any:

(H.1.a) contractual matter;

(H.1.b) selection matter;

(H.1.c) disciplinary matter;

(H.1.d) financial matter; or

(H.1.e) other matter ;

in which a perceived, real or potential conflict of interest arises or may arise, and shall, unless otherwise determined by the Executive Committee, absent themselves from discussions of such matter and shall not be entitled to vote in respect of such matter.

(H.2) If the Director votes the vote shall not be counted. In the event of any uncertainty as to whether it is necessary for a Director to absent themselves from discussions and refrain from voting, the issue should be immediately determined by vote of the Executive Committee, or if this is not possible, the matter shall be adjourned or deferred.

I. Recording Disclosures

Any declaration, any disclosure or any general notice given by a Director in accordance with rule 13.H. must be recorded in the minutes of the relevant meeting.

14. SPORTS ADMINISTRATOR

A. Appointment of Sports Administrator

Subject to this Constitution, a Sports Administrator may be appointed by the Executive Committee for such term and on such conditions as the Executive Committee thinks fit.

B. Specific Duties

The specific duties of the Sports Administrator shall be outlined in the Regulations.

15. DELEGATIONS TO SUB-COMMITTEES

A. Executive Committee may delegate Function

(A.1) The Executive Committee may by instrument in writing, create or establish or appoint sub-committees, of any such size considered reasonable by the Executive Committee, to carry out such duties and functions, and with such powers and obligations, as the Executive Committee determines necessary from time to time, other than:

(A.1.a) this power of delegation; and

(A.1.b) a function imposed on the Executive Committee or the Secretary by the Act or any other law, or this Constitution or by resolution of the Association in General Meeting.

(A.2) A function, the exercise of which has been delegated to a sub-committee or individual under this rule, may whilst the delegation remains unrevoked, be exercised from time to time in accordance with the terms of the delegation.

(A.3) Any such delegated function shall be outlined in the Regulations.

B. Procedure of Delegated Sub-Committee

(B.1) The procedures for any sub-committee exercising delegated power shall, subject to this Constitution and with any necessary or incidental amendment, be the same as that applicable to meetings of the Executive Committee under rule 13.

(B.2) The sub-committee exercising delegated powers shall make decisions in accordance with the Objects, and shall promptly provide the Executive Committee with details of all material decisions and shall ensure all reports, minutes and information as the Executive Committee may require from time to time are produced to the next Executive Committee meeting.

C. Delegation may be Conditional

A delegation under this rule may be made subject to such conditions or limitations as to the exercise of any function or at the time or circumstances as may be specified in the delegation.

D. Revocation of Delegation

The Executive Committee may by instrument in writing, at any time revoke wholly or in part any delegation made under this rule, and may amend or repeal any decision made by such body or person under this rule.

E. Existing Sub-Committees

The sub-committees operating immediately prior to the adoption of this Constitution shall continue to operate subject to this Constitution for a period which will cease immediately prior to the first meeting of the Executive Committee or until otherwise determined by the Executive Committee.

16. ANNUAL GENERAL MEETINGS

- (A.1) An Annual General Meeting shall be held at least once in every calendar year at such time and place as may be determined by the Executive Committee but within six (6) months of the close of the financial year.
- (A.2) All Meetings other than Annual General Meetings shall be General Meetings and shall be held in accordance with this Constitution.

17. GENERAL MEETINGS

A. General Meetings May be Held

General Meetings are Annual General Meetings held in accordance with Clause 16 or Special General Meetings convened by the Executive Committee whenever it thinks fit or the meeting is requisitioned by Members under Clause 17.2. Unless specified otherwise the provisions for General Meetings in this Constitution apply to both Annual General and Special General Meetings.

B. Requisition of Special General Meetings

- (B.1) The Executive Committee shall on the requisition in writing of not less than twenty percent (20%) of voting Members convene a Special General Meeting.
- (B.2) The requisition for a Special General Meeting shall state the object(s) of the meeting, shall be signed by the Members making the requisition and be sent to the Association and may consist of several documents in a like form, each signed by one or more of the Members making the requisition.
- (B.3) If the Executive Committee does not cause a Special General Meeting to be held within one (1) month after the date on which the requisition is sent to the Association, the Members making the requisition, or any of them, may convene a Special General Meeting to be held not later than three (3) months after that date.
- (B.4) A Special General Meeting convened by Members under this Constitution shall be convened in the same manner, or as nearly as possible as that, in which meetings are convened by the Executive Committee.

18. NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETING

- (A.1) Notice of every General Meeting shall be given to every Member entitled to vote at that meeting at the address appearing in the Register kept by the Association. The auditor, Sports Administrator, if any and Directors shall also be entitled to notice of every General Meeting, which shall be sent to their last notified address. No other person shall be entitled as of right to receive notices of General Meetings.
- (A.2) A notice of a General Meeting of the members of the Association (including an Annual General Meeting) must:
 - (A.2.a) set out the place, date and time of the meeting; and
 - (A.2.b) state the general nature of the meeting's business;
 - (A.2.c) if a special resolution is to be proposed at the meeting - set out an intention to propose the special resolution and state the resolution.
- (A.3) At least twenty-one (21) days notice of a General Meeting shall be given to those Members entitled to receive notice, together with:
 - (A.3.a) The agenda for the meeting; and
 - (A.3.b) Any notice of motion received from Members entitled to vote;
- (A.4) Notice of every General Meeting shall be given in the manner authorised in rule 34
- (A.5) Neither:
 - (A.5.a) the accidental omission to give notice of a meeting; nor
 - (A.5.b) the non receipt by any person of notice of a meeting;

shall invalidate any proceedings at such meeting unless pursuant to the Act such proceedings are declared to be void.

19. BUSINESS OF GENERAL MEETINGS

- (A.1) The business of the Annual General Meeting shall be as follows:
 - (A.1.a) to receive and consider the minutes of the previous Annual General Meeting and the minutes of any other General Meeting requiring confirmation; and
 - (A.1.b) to receive and consider the reports of the Executive Committee;
